

Things to see and do around campus

There's a wealth of attractions to explore at the University of Birmingham, starting with Winterbourne House and Garden a short 10-15 minute walk away from your accommodation. Here you can explore 7 acres of relaxing botanical gardens or visit the historic house to learn more about the family who built it. To find out more or book tickets, visit Winterbourne's website: winterbourne.org.uk

Next stop is the Barber Institute of Fine Arts, a 15-20 minute walk from your accommodation. Here you can immerse yourself in a bit of culture with everything from Monet to Manet, Rubens and Botticelli to the likes of Van Gogh. A visit to the Barber is sure to never disappoint and entry fee is a donation so no need to book ahead. You can visit the Barber's website: barber.org.uk to find out more about what you can find on your visit.

Fancy taking in a show in the evening? Then check out the Bramall's website: thebramall.co.uk to find the latest classical, comedy and spoken word events, all at amazing prices and just a 20-25 minute walk from your accommodation.

Features at a glance

- 🕒 Winterbourne House and Garden
10-15 min walking distance (opening times: November-March 10am – 4pm weekdays, 11am – 4pm weekends, April-October 10am – 5.30pm weekdays, 11am – 5.30pm weekends)
- 🕒 Barber Institute of Fine Arts, a 15-20 min walking distance
- 🕒 Latest classical, comedy and spoken word events at The Bramall only 20-25 mins from your accommodation
- 🕒 Lapworth Museum of Geology is only 20-25 mins from your accommodation

The final place on our campus, but certainly not the least, is the Lapworth Museum of Geology where you can explore everything from dinosaurs to volcanoes and rocks to fossils. Well worth a visit and free of charge, the Lapworth Museum is located a short 20-25 minute walk from your accommodation.

